Larry had a smile about him that was sincere. When he was healthy, he was at Blackjack Baptist Church in Atoka. He also volunteered his carpenter's skill at church whenever it was needed. He will be missed!

Old Larry Tom!
Larry and I were born the same month an year but I was 13 days older than him, but he was taller.....Lol.
Larry was a gental giant, always had a smile off the side of his face, and when he seen me he would always say jokingly (I hate Greenmyers) then laugh about it, until his auntie Ruby Greenmyer over heard him say that,
It embarrassed him and started to try and explain so I felt sorry for him and helped him dig his way out. funny ! I never heard him say that again.
Larry was a loving man, I always enjoyed being around him, I missed seeing him here on my last trip when my sister Esther Wise passed, I know Larry Tom will be missed most by his wife an children and grandchildren.
Brother Carrol and sisters Linda an Beverly ,
RIP Cousin I'll see you again someday.💔
