I am Raymond Marrow, Audie's youngest brother. Audie was a wonderful big sister, eighteen years older than me. She was a sweet mother to her kids...always washing their clothes....canning... had that pressure cooker going..she cold packed, too ...always keeping up with what Odair was bringing in! (She had her kids washing the jars!) She and Laquita worked at the sewing factory for a while. She enjoyed quilting...she would come over to our Mama's house where she would be quilting with Mama, Aunt Rosie Linville, and her cousin Lelar Brown. They'd quilt there in the kitchen. Audie had her own quilting racks over at her house. She made some beautiful quilts! I remember when the the men would kill hogs, and then Dencil and I would be turning the crank grinding the meat on the sausage grinder. So many great memories! I will surely miss her and her sweet laugh!
