“ My Mom was the best mom ever. She taught us how to live for Jesus and serve him with all of our hearts. Mom's smile would light up any place she was at. When Mom would laugh her laughter would make any smile and laugh with her. When mom would sing you filled the holy spirit every time she would sing. My mom was and is still the apple of my daddy's eye. Their love was amazing to watch when I was little and to this very day. Though all of mom's sickness Daddy never left her and that is true love. Momma and Daddy served the Lord with all their heart. Mom loved her grandsons very much. They were the light of her eye. Watching the boys with mom made my heart smile. Mom was and still is my best friend who I will miss everyday until we meet again either in death or by the Rapture of the church when Jesus comes again.

“ I worked with Beverly in 80s at Walmart. We laughed together so many times. She was so sweet. Thinking of you all.
