“ I have been trying to find a picture of me wearing the bathrobe Bonnie made for me when I came to visit Em & Omer the summer of 1971. It was red with a square neckline & voluminous sleeves and I wore it for years, even after my sister's rabbit chewed holes in it. She just cut it out freehand from the bolt, sewed it together, put elastic in the sleeves, trim on the neckline and....voila. This was very impressive to someone who got a B- in sewing Sophomore Home-Ec. Generous, hospitable and unflappable... that was my impression of Bonnie. Stan said she passed peacefully for which I am thankful.

“ Visited with Bonnie last part of May , both of us were at the cemetery taking care of our children grave sights getting them ready for memorial day . Our visit was as usual , talking about our children . We always shared a story about one or the other , that day she told us about her & John cooking ribs in a cut off 55 gallon barrel , and Jim saw all them fancy cookers around that he thought they should be using , and using his favorite saying , I'll be dam Bonnie , all those cookers and your cooking in a damn barrell .
