“ No nonsense for sure, grandma loved people fiercely. I intend to carry that on like the rest of her grand kids and extended family. She protected her peace and even though she was not a member of the church, she knew God above all. I cannot count the times we sat and talked about the world, God and current events unfolding. She had an unwavering faith and loved the friends that visited her and aunt Kari from some of the churches. One thing I'm sure of, she's all around us now. The glue isn't visible but it's viable. Let's make her proud, I love you grandma!
