“ I did not know Charlotte was lost to us in 2021...and is that not the sadness of loss? Sometimes--too many times--we live our lives knowing nothing of the terrible losses that surround us. Your precious Charlotte lived across the Precinct Road from my family when we were children in Hooks, Texas. I did not know her well except to say that even in my youth, I knew Charlotte was special, her heart was magnanimous, her manner kind and generous...I look back on her sweetness and loveliness of spirit, her depth of heart, and I remember... and remember... and remember...It is my thought that there are those for whom the angels sing their sweetest songs, those whose hands are held more tightly as they walk those final steps toward their maker, whisper their last words into those waiting, earthly ears. Charlotte was one of those beautiful souls who would have heard those heavenly strains...Perhaps it is too late for these words to be acknowledged, but no matter. The beauty of such a one as Charlotte demands that I say them. Rest in peace our lovely spirit, Dear Charlotte!

“ Such a lovely lady. Thank you for sharing the photos of Charlotte and her family. She shared many stories with me about her family and the fun memories she made. She had a smile that was so genuine and infectious. She told me once, "Smiling people have never met a stranger". She was pure joy and an honor to work with.

“ I was fortunate to work with Charlotte for about 4 years. Her smile, enthusiasm, and amazing work ethic are great memories. She always spoke highly about her family, her love of singing, and her crazy long car trips to visit friends. She will be missed, but it was a blessing to know her while she was here.

“ When I think of my friend Charlotte ,I think of her smiling face and how she always made me laugh ! We could be anywhere and she would acknowledge a complete stranger and have them laughing along with us . I will never forget her words of encouragement that always made me feel , so much a better person . I love you my friend Charlotte .
