

Christopher Lee Rainwater

July 27, 1986 - September 5, 2025

With heavy hearts, we announce that Christopher Lee Rainwater went to be with the Lord on September 5, 2025. Chris was born on July 27, 1986, to Bernie and Donna Rainwater. A proud graduate of Talihina High School, Chris discovered his talents early on in carpentry and automotive classes. His natural gift for building and repairing anything became a lifelong passion, and he poured his heart into every skill he learned.

It was during his school years that Chris met his sweetheart, Aslynn Camp, in ninth grade. Though they didn't begin dating until later, their bond grew into a deep love, and the two were married on May 9, 2005. Together, they shared three sons. In 2014, Chris dedicated his life to the Lord at My Brother's Keeper at Word of God Church in Oklahoma City, a decision that forever changed his path. That same year, he welcomed a daughter, and in 2016 he and Aslynn were remarried, strengthening their family once more. Throughout his career, Chris worked with Neighbors Drilling, Alspludh, various mechanic shops, and as a painter, always putting his many talents to good use. He also spent over a decade working for Eugene and CJ Norvell as a farm hand. However, his most cherished role was as a driller for B&H Construction, where he found not only meaningful work but also a supportive family who played a significant role in his healing, success, and pride. Chris will always be remembered as a loving husband, devoted father, and hardworking man. His family will forever be grateful for the grace, love, and encouragement he received throughout his life.

Chris is survived by his wife, Aslynn; his sons, Brock (and wife Hanna), Bryce, and Brendin; his daughter, Mercy; his mother and stepfather, Donna and Garland Nelson; his sister, Terri and spouse Robert Morrow, and brother, Jason James, his first granddaughter, Oakley, along with his bonus granddaughter, Checotah. He is also survived by his grandmother Judy Watson, aunt Sheri Rainwater, uncles Roy, Luke, Earl, Byrnel and William Rainwater, Uncle David and wife Connie Bigelow, Uncle Johnny Bigelow and wife Debbie, Uncle Matt Speers and wife Jenni, Aunt Willie and husband Shawn. Cousins Shannon and Shawn Smith, Corie Jones, Eric Rainwater, Emily Speers, Caleb Speers and wife Brittney, Jennifer, Jessica and Jimmy, Tucker, Haili, Joel and Brian, as well as many extended family members and friends who loved him deeply.

Chris was preceded in death by his great grandfather Noah Earl Rainwater, his grandfather Byrnel Rainwater, Sr, his father, Bernie Lee Rainwater; his cousin, Brent Shawn Rainwater; his uncle, Nathaniel Rainwater, nephew Paul Lester Emde, II and his grandfather and grandmother Arlen and Linda Speers.

Chris's memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved him.
