“ Donna was my cousin. Her mom Rosie was my mom's, Velma, oldest sister. Our daddies died around the same time. We grew up together & along with her sister Rebecca spent many, many days playing & singing & pretending that Donny Osmond was our boyfriend...lol. I can still hear Aunt Rosie hollering "you girls stop that giggling & go to sleep!" Life happened & we all went our separate ways & I haven't seen or talked to Donna in many years. But her memory will always be a part of me.
