“ I can remember when Frank and my Mother in law first met, she was giddy with excitement. From the very start we fell in love with Frank, any time we were able to spend with them was always cherished. We all loved to see the way he loved Mom and always took such great care of her. We have great memories of having them stay in our home and remember Frank sharing his heart for the Lord with friends and family. One of our friends in petcular was Peggy who runs the House of Grace, a home for women trying to rebuild their lives thru ministry and practical training, Frank and Mom had a heart for this home and supported them, they loved time spent with Frank and he shared his Godly wisdom with them. When we were able to visit Oklahoma and we had such amazing times with Mom and Frank, we came home feeling like we had just gone to church camp. We will all miss Frank so much and feel so blessed that we have had these years to have had him in our family. I know Frank is with our Lord, exactly where he has always wanted to be. Good bye our sweet Frank we all love you! The most important thing i believe Frank would want to leave is his greatest desire for all to find the Lord for themselves and I know his legacy lives on as his light shone so bright for the Lord. Love and miss you
Kathy(daughter in law)
