“ Aunt Geraldine was a wonderful Lady, I didn't get to be around her very much after I grew up, but I always tried to visit her when we came back for a vacation. She always wanted to feed us, she was very loving. She will be missed, God decided to bless her by bringing her home to be with Him.

Aunt Geraldine was a knockout in her younger days, and she's still as beautiful in her golden years!

She was one of my mom's younger sisters , and when my mom passed I used to tell aunt Geraldine that she reminded me so much of mom that I just wanted to sit in her lap! Heck ! I only weighed 280 pounds😄 and she would tell me to come and sit, but I didn't want to crush her. Her famous words were when all of mom dads kids got around her she would say (Ruby an Edmond raised some of the best kids, She knew what she was talking about... Lol.

Aunt Geraldine you will be greatly missed here in this world, but I will see you again in the Kingdom of heaven .

I love you 💕

Your nephew :Jerry

I have fond memories of Aunt Geraldine, our Dad would take us to visit, and like Jerry said, I remember sitting at her Dinner table. When we visited her at the Nursing Home she was so happy I hated to leave her, she knew who we was, I am pretty sure she said we were Cotton's girls, but she called Sis by name. ❤️❤️
