“ Jahala beauty was from the inside out, such poise and dignity, someone to I always looked up to and admired. Such a elegant but yet down to earth person. As a very young girl I helped Mom clean her house at the farm and the beauty college , then as a young person I attended beauty college with her one of my instructors. Then as I went on to college I worked at the Ritz Theatre for her and at the Jon Fran Beauty Salon, with all that to say she was always giving young people a chance to better themselves. If you were willing to work, she would find a spot. She was not only my family but my friend and I will forever hold a very a very special place in my heart for Jahala❤️

“ I remember swinging by the flower shop after school and how just the smell of the flowers walking in, made my day. Mrs. Jahala was always nice and kind to us. We had fun helping to deliver flowers at times when our mom, Sharon Crank, worked there. Mrs. Jahala was a special lady. So sorry for your loss. - Cassie Crank
