

Larry Joe Armstrong

April 10, 1941 - December 9, 2023

Larry Joe Armstrong "Boney", age 82, passed away from this life on Saturday, December 9th, 2023 at home with family by his side in Clayton, OK. Boney was born in Poteau, OK on April 10, 1941 to Richard {Judge} & Beulah (Perry) Armstrong. Boney was a heavy machine operator. He was the top dozer hand for Farrell and Cooper Mining Company in Red Oak OK for 25 years. After that, Boney worked various jobs. Working a period of time for Flint and Ivan Lloyd then settled into retirement. Boney & Judy were married June 25 1999 in Mena AR. From that day on if you saw one you saw the other. They lovingly called each other Big Darlin and Little Darlin. They enjoyed family, friends and traveling to casinos. At home, they enjoyed western movies and the game show channel while always trying their luck on scratch offs. Boney would spend his afternoons playing solitaire, visiting with their kind neighbors, and taking care of any stray cat that would come for a visit. Boney has been quoted as being one of the best dozer operators and artifact locator to ever grace these parts.
