“ My deepest condolences to Larry's family. Larry's parents lived just down the road from my parents, at what is now Clayville. Back then it was just Henry Clay's place. When my father Bunk Davis had to be hospitalized in 1966 and needed blood, Larry was right there. He was a part of our family as Jimmy Hunsucker and Loren Guthrie. Three peas in a pod. How Betty put up with them is amazing. They always said "Betty never got cross with us. She was a saint". You will be missed Larry. Rest in Peace.
