“ So many memories that flood my mind but the fun one are the best thru the tears. The time when we were small and I was staying the week with then and Lyndia, Diana and we playing with a huge carmal candy sucker, I turned around to face Diana and Linda hit me on the top of the head and the sucker broke into a thousand pieces. Aunt Christine made us crawl around and pickup every piece. Then when we were in our teens and went to the Dances on Friday and Saturday nights all over Push county. She, Diana and Aunt Christine would send me cookies and other goodies when I was I Vietnam and needed some love from home. She was the closest thing to a sister I had. I loved her and she loved me. I will always miss her always. Until we meet again.
