“ I only got the honor to know Lorrie for a short while, but I can't fully express the impact that she's had on me. I met Lorrie at our spinal care doctor's office and we soon found out that we both struggle with constant dizziness. We really bonded and having someone who understood me on that level made such a positive difference in me. Even though she was twice my age, we could talk for the longest times. Lorrie was so sweet and caring, she wore her heart on her sleeve and I will forever be grateful that I met her and got to know her.

“ From the minute we met it felt right for us to be friends. It was instant. We were comfortable in each other's company. Her and Chuck and Jim and I, were the perfect foursome. I regret how many times we said, "hope to see you soon", but I cherish the times we had. My heart weeps. My sympathies to all who knew and loved her.

“ I always loved the way Lorrie would be so honest and then laugh her beautiful laugh. I loved watching her be such a bold example of a woman when I was growing up, I loved watching her find so much love with Chuck, I loved how I every time I saw her she was so genuine. I am sending all my love and best vibrations to get family right now. I won't be able to be at the memorial but I hope to live my life every day in a way that honors Lorrie's example.
