Before her illness struck, she was quickly moving up the ranks of the Nabisco Company while being an above average mom. She served as a little league umpire, a cub scout den mother all while scrambling to get kids to multiple sports' practices and games to include soccer, baseball and karate. In her younger life, Margaret enjoyed skiing, sailing, bowling and pursuing higher education.

Margaret was preceded in death by her Father and mother, Howard and Peggy Breed, her Husband, Wilmer Dill and Her sister, Victoria E. Barruzza.
