“ This woman did more for me than most people I've ever known. She homed me; encouraged me; watched me rise; kept me a place to come home to when I crashed; and when I still couldn't pick myself back up she answered my call, still, and helped pick me back up, after all. Most of the time when she threatened to kick my butt....I listened...and that's not something I ordinarily would do. So that's a big deal to me that she could impact my life enough to know I'd better pay attention to whatever she had to say. She's been with me through 2 pregnancies and my kids are ten years apart! I'll not ever forget the things she did for me and I'll miss her like crazy. I already do. Love you Mrs Mary....travel far.
