“ I was so surprised to hear of Ralph passing. The few years that Ralph and I spent together in California and in Texas, bare great memories of the great times we had. Always enjoyed when Rita would come stay with us in the spring. Ralph and I parted years ago, however stayed in touch. We last communicated a few weeks before he passed.

You will be missed by all who knew you. Jeff

“Ralph was a school mate and lived just up River Rd. from our home (corner of River Rd and what used to be Lock St, now Bridge St.) in W Phoenix, NY. One of my best memories with Ralph is when we would walk home after school, over the bridge to the west side but on the way, visiting a lovely elderly lady by the name of Mrs. Hoyt. She had mobility and eyesight issues. Ralph was so attentive to her. We would spend hours with her as she shared childhood stories and of her love for the Holy Bible and Jesus. I know that she was a prayer warrior for the both of us before she past. Ralph continued to visit her after our family moved to Phoenix, AZ in 1971. Ralph and I kept in touch until our mid-late 20's. In 1976, Ralph crocheted a beautiful emerald green, crimson red and black 'Granny-Square' afghan with white roses and sent it to my husband and I for a wedding present. I still have this precious creation and his letters and will cherish them forever. Life happens as they say, so didn't keep in touch over the years until late last year. My sister Katrina found him on FB, and started to catch up. Ralph and I exchanged cards and email visits with my promise to call and spend time with him over the phone to catch up. Ralph was to travel last month or so to visit with Trina in MO, then later, to travel west in hope to have visit with us in AZ. Katrina and I were so looking forward to seeing him again! Needless to say, we were shocked and saddened to hear that he's gone and opportunities to visit lost. We are comforted to know that he's with his Heavenly Father. We know this because of Ralph's steadfast love and devotion to Him and His Word. Katrina and I send heartfelt sympathy to Elise, Tim, Mark, Mike, Karl and all the family. We pray you know of the comfort and care that The Prince of Peace, Jesus, has for you, to be with you now.

“ Ralph was a true friend and one of the kindest, gentlest people I know... I will miss him, and his letters and cards. I've known Ralph since college, first at SUNY Cobleskill and then at SUNY Oswego. I last saw him when he visited his Mom, Rita, two or three years ago before Rita passed. He cared for her in her last days. This news came as a real shock. Be with God, my friend... You had a big heart and brought so much love and light into the world. Miss you and love you forever.

“ Ralph is my friend. I use the word is, because even through his body is gone, he is still here and he believed that. He always showed a gentle, caring side of himself. We would often have coffee together and chat about the most interesting things. He always tried his best to live and show his caring for others. He made a difference in my life. I am grateful he came into my life. He always supported my work, and he made me smile. I hope all of his friends and family, will be able to focus on the LIGHT he brought to others, rather than sadness that he is gone. Of course we are all sad, but we can choose to be grateful that he was part of our lives, either by blood, or by love. and If you believe as I do that we can still be in contact through love, then as our current sadness passes we can move into the good memories we have of him and find inner peace that all is well. . In Peace, Sonja Christiansen
