“ I enjoyed so many conversations with her on the phone and on her porch having a smoke. A Great Lady and will be greatly missed by so many.

No worries Reba I will always keep my promises to you!

“ I remember talking to my grandma on the phone every day for hours and hours!! We would talk about everything, from what happened that day, to years before, my greatest memories would have to be from the front porch with that musky cigarette smoke filling the air, oh how wonderful it was! I built her multiple bird houses, and small benches growing up, and oh how she loved them, I would give it all to see her smile one more time!!
