“ I don't know where to start. All I have seen in my memories for the past several days are you as a 13-year-old with that snaggle tooth grin. If I ever wanted to be mischievous and you were around, it was definitely going to happen. I loved hunting and fishing with you, you were always patient and funny. I loved playing horse with you, heck I even enjoyed the cow patty fights. You made everything fun. I don't like that you're not here with us anymore. But, I know you are in heaven. I love you little brother!

“ My sweet cousin, Rex! It's hard to believe that you too are now gone. Who would have thought you would gain your wings 5 weeks and 1 day after Sheldon. I know it tore you up not being able to make the trip down for his services. However he wouldn't have wanted you to jeopardize your health in anyway. Well today your wishes will be granted by your family. Go Rejoice with your parents and our other family members. Most of all can you and Sheldon please watch over us down here? Because we will need it. You two behave up there and until we meet again. I love you my sweet cousin.

“ I have so many memories as kids at the house on the hill! Many memories at family reunions at bengal, but the most memorable story was when he was mowing camp on Deans mower with no brakes, and ended up in the creek! That was dads favorite story!

“ I have many fond memories of him, some I can tell and some I will take with me to my grave. The first time I met him was in the trailer house Pops lived in. He looked me up then down and asked if I wanted a beer. I could tell right then and there I liked him. Gonna miss you brother and will see you again one of these days.

“ I will always have fond memories of shooting hoops in the pasture with Rex and Robert or occasionally throwing cow chips at each other. He loved just standing around the camp fire having a cold beer and telling stories. Love and miss you Rex.
