“ It is so hard to believe Steve is gone, I have so many precious memories of him that I cherish. I was always excited when we were going to go visit all the family in Oklahoma there was always so much fun to be had when we were together. I can remember sitting looking out my front room window anxiously waiting for them and Hurley's family to come visit us for Thanksgiving a couple of times. I think my favorite memory is all the thrills we shared riding on the motorcycles, the joy, the freedom, the exhilaration hanging on for dear life. From my  heart I say goodbye and thanks for the memories, you will be missed. With love -Ginny-

“ One day Steve and his family and Hurley and his family were standing out in front of the garage talking. Steve couldn't remember a person's name, and he called them oh, what's their nose. That phrase stuck in my memory. I think of Steve every time I use it.
