

Thelma McIntosh

October 3, 1938 - October 5, 2024

Thelma (Scott) McIntosh, age 86 of Talihina, Oklahoma passed away from this life on October 5th, 2024 in Pottsboro, Texas. Thelma was born on October 3rd, 1938 in Garrett, Kentucky to Rachael (Engle) and Roby Scott. She married Corneluis McIntosh Jr. and they began their life journey together. Their marriage included owning several business's including the Circle J restaurant in Talihina many years ago, learning and supporting her Cherokee Indian Heritage culture, and traveling. Thelma never met a stranger and would strike up a conversation with just about anyone who would listen. She had a passion for animals, especially her birds and dogs. In her past time, she enjoyed beading, crocheting, painting, hatching all kinds of birds, and a love for watching scary movies. She was always within reach of her "puffer" (vape) and loved eating her crooked tail nuts" (cashews). Living in Talihina, she was a member of the Choctaw Senior Citizens and always enjoyed the events and travel they did. Thelma will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Thelma is survived by her daughter, Alice Couch and husband Jimmy of Grenada, MS; sister, Louise Matthews of Warsaw, MO; granddaughters, Sunny Marie Brehm and husband Jason of Whitesboro, TX, Lori Barns and husband Jeremy of Talihina, OK, and Veronica Lovely Allen; great grandchildren, Rana Denley of OKC, OK, Samantha Morris and husband KJ of Talihina, OK, and Nick Denley and wife Sarah of Broken Arrow, OK; great great grandson Bowen; as well as numerous extended family and friends.

Thelma is preceded in passing by her husband, Cornelius McIntosh Jr.; son, Emmitt Mark Allen; mother, Rachel Casey; father, Roby Scott.

“ Such a colorful sense of humor, this lady. She had so much love for her birds and it shows in them. The way a person treats God's creatures is a true reflection of their soul. RIP kind lady.
