“ Bill married one of my very best friends and then I called him friend too. Larry and I worked many ranch rodeos and bull dogging events with Bill, Joni, and the Huddleston family. My prayers and good thoughts go out to Joni and the family. Love you all so much.

“ Bill was my dear friend's husband, and this became my good friend as well. Bill kept my political views closer to the middle by calling me on lots of things as we did not agree, but his viewpoint was always worthy and well thought-out. He blessed me with many verses, memes, mini sermons and gracious posts on our shared love of Jesus. He would occasionally send me a funny picture or touching story as well, and I was blessed to have been the recipient of so many worthy things by his hand. Bill was always so welcoming and cordial with me. I saw him grow tremendously as a Christian in these years I've known him. No doubt he is enjoying Jesus' company today.

Bill was so very, very proud of each one of his family members. He felt blessed with you, and you were blessed with him. Prayers for all of you.
